Spotify LIGHT LOVE LEAD

Keith Tay is a Thought Leader, Life & Business Coach, International Speaker, Pastor and Co-Founder of Autrui Global; a social enterprise that has the vision to create a sustainable future for the healthcare professionals globally.

He has been in the Learning and Development industry since 2004, and has been passionately training the next generation leaders since 2005. Known for his dynamic and engaging style of speaking, he travels actively to more than 12 different countries to give talks on Leadership and Purposeful living.

Having been trained in both the Engineering field (B.Eng. Mechanical) and Theological Studies (Masters in Theology), Keith leverages on his experience of corporate management and holistic development to teach on the integration of leadership, work and spirituality.

He is also a certified professional coach to many young entrepreneurs and business owners of different industries. He has a unique way of using the Enneagram Personality Profiling as a tool to help others connect their professional and personal relationships. He is often being regarded as a relationship guru and leadership coach because of his years of experience in leading churches.
